

Hygiene and Contraception

Hygiene

breast shields
deodorant
diuretic tablets
douche
concentrate
fluid
powder

feminine syringe
feminine napkins
fountain syringe
fungicide
mini (maxi) pads
nursing pads
panty liners

panty shields
sanitary belt
sanitary napkins
shower
tampons
vaginal cream
water pills

Contraception

contraceptive methods and information

birth control
contraceptive implant
norplant
cervical cap
condom
prophylactic
rubber
safe
sheath
shield

contraceptive creams
foam
gel
insert
jelly
suppository
vaginal tablets
diaphragm with spermicide emergency contraceptive pill (ECP) hormone injection/ depoprovera intrauterine device (IUD)

oral contraceptives
“the pill”
the rhythm method
vaginal spermicides
vasectomy/tubal ligation
withdrawal
coitus interruptus
abstinence
“just say no”
self-constraint
self-control

People

gynecologist

obstetrician

fertility counselor

Organizations and Expressions

abortion
abortion clinic
abortion rights
ASHA/American Social
Health Association
anti-abortion
family planning
free choice
high-risk behavior

Planned Parenthood
population bomb
pro-choice
pro-life
right to life
reproductive rights
Roe versus Wade

safe sex
sex education
sexual intercourse STD sexually transmitted disease - HIV/AIDS, herpes unprotected sex
women's rights
zero population growth

This page was removed from the paper edition of The ESL Miscellany because some people found the topic to be offensive. It is offered here for teachers who wish to use it. Copyright © 1981-2005 by Pro Lingua Associates. It may be printed out or photocopied for classroom use.