

Summarizing Interviews and Surveys 1

Interview a classmate.

Speak with a classmate for about 10 minutes. Take notes.
The write down five things you learned about your classmate.
Your classmate should write about you.

After you have each written your interview summaries,
show them to each other and comment on them.

Summarizing Interviews and Surveys 2

Interview a teacher.

First write down 10 questions that you would like to ask.
Take notes during the interview and then write your teacher's responses to your questions.

Suggestion:

Several of you can interview your teacher at the same time. Write your questions independently, and then take turns asking them. Write down only your teacher's responses to your own questions.
